

Fill in the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

1. Ben Takes (take) guitar lessons every week, but he does not play (not play) very well yet.
2. I prefer (prefer) studying at my friend's house because his sister always helps (help) us with our homework.
3. "Hi, what do you do (do) now?" "Sam and I are making (make) dinner."
4. Julia is studying (study) in London this year. She loves (love) it there!
5. Do you like (like) this kind of music? I don't like (not like) it at all!

The following letter contains 10 errors. Correct them.

Dear Jennifer,

My parents and I am <sup>are</sup> very happy here in Toronto. Dad is enjoying very much his new job, but Mum right now isn't working. She want to learn first English. She go every evening to special classes for adults.

I like really my new school. The other kids are very friendly. They try always to help me when I doesn't understand something anything.

Please write soon - I miss you!

Love,
Mar

Translate into English Present simple or continuous?

- A.- José está cansado y tiene frío José is tired and is cold
- B.- ¿Trabaja hoy tu hermana? Is your sister working today?
- C.- Nunca bebo vino. I never drink wine
- D.- Mis padres viven en Valencia pero yo vivo en Madrid.
My parents live in Valencia but I live in Madrid
- E.- ¿Te gusta el té o prefieres café? Do you like tea or do you prefer coffee
- F.- ¿Qué haces? / Estoy estudiando. What are you doing? I am studying
- G.- Viven en un piso grande pero no les gusta They living in large apartment
but they don't like it
- H.- Me voy ahora. ¡Adiós! I'm leaving now. Goodbye
- I.- ¿Qué hacen Juan y Luisa? / Están viendo la tele. What do Juan and Luisa do?
They are watching TV
- J.- ¿Con qué frecuencia vas al teatro? How often do you go to the theatre?
- K.- ¿Habla usted español? Do you speak Spanish?
- L.- Estudio idiomas todos los días. I study languages every day